September, 2017 – July, 2020

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Inspur Inc.

User Interface and User Experience Designer Intern

Jinan, Shandong, China

June, 2023 – August, 2023

- Utilized Sketch to design a low-fidelity prototype for Jinan Metro's app, focusing on user experience and essential features like live train schedules and navigation with transfer notifications.
- Developed an interactive UI with Sketch and Principle, integrating 3D animations for offline station identification in low-signal scenarios. Addressed the complex layout of subway stations by formulating a color-coded scheme for in-station transfer navigation, aiding in the creation of 3D navigation aids.
- Signed up for the 2023 German Red Dot Design Award on behalf of Inspur General Software Group and wrote English application materials and product introduction for Farris UI "Plug and play" design system.

Hupu Sports (Shanghai) Media Co. Ltd

User Experience Designer Intern

Shanghai, China

June, 2022 – August, 2022

- Developed an "Honor Badge" system for Hupu NBA fan forum, linking user comments' likes/dislikes to their honor score. Constructive, expert commentary yields higher prestige and corresponding badges, visible next to usernames and on profiles. This initiative, adopted in the app's beta version, notably curtailed community trolling (reporting decreased by 400 users monthly) and enhanced fan engagement (4% rise in monthly active users).
- Translated 50+ NFL news articles and interviews, aiding Hupu in becoming the first Chinese sports forum to offer real-time NFL updates in Mandarin.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

University of Washington Intramural Soccer Club

Director of Public Relations

Seattle, WA

April, 2022 – Now

- overseeing public relations for the soccer club, I fostered collaborations between the club and its sponsors. I adeptly secured sponsorships from numerous Seattle-based restaurants and student housing firms, raising over $20,000 for the club. Furthermore, I orchestrated a successful soccer tournament, engaging over 100 intramural players.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Washington Athletics Performance Nutrition Center

Assistant Nutritionist

Seattle, WA

November, 2022 – March, 2023

- Developed a profound understanding of order management and inventory oversight, ensuring that athletes' nutritional needs were seamlessly met.
- Understand the intricate interplay among various departments in a professional athletic setting. The hands-on exposure to both the micro-level tasks and the broader organizational coordination has endowed me with invaluable skills that not only stand out in the job market but will also be instrumental in shaping my future career.

Qilu Hospital of Shandong University

Patient Coordinator Volunteer

Jinan, Shandong

June, 2020 – August, 2020

Stationed at the outpatient reception desk, assisting patients with registration, appointments, departmental guidance, medical record printing, and insurance coverage inquiries. Identified user experience and logical issues within the hospital's appointment and inquiry system and presented my recommendations to the IT department. My suggestions were adopted, leading to a daily increase of over 50 patients catered at the outpatient department and a reduction in average patient processing time by 40 seconds, significantly enhancing the hospital's operational efficiency.
